Regal Fabrics Acquires Diversitex Home

Dtex by Regal Fabrics will extend product line significantly

MIDDLETON, MA: Regal Fabrics today announced its acquisition of the Diversitex Home division of Diversitex, Inc. The product line will be rebranded as Dtex by Regal Fabrics. Regal will provide continuity and fulfillment for current customers as of Monday, August 24th.

"We are excited to add the Dtex by Regal Fabrics product into our mix," said President, Steve Kahan. "We'll now have natural fibers, sourced in the USA, including the fabric known as Topsider, which is arguably the most successful cotton twill in the industry. The Dtex line brings our customers a wide range of woven textures in cotton, linen and rayon plus beautiful velvets and decorative designs. All will be provided with the high level of support and service that customers rely on from Regal Fabrics."

Diversitex Home specialized in providing an array of upholstery and multipurpose fabrics from around the world. The line is best known for a deep collection of USA converted piece-dyed natural fiber weaves and twills. Diversitex has excelled at merchandising its piece-dyed cotton fabrics alongside an array of lux looks including velvets and natural and polyester jacquards.

Says Kahan, "We are proud to be in a position to take advantage of the opportunity to grow our line and provide a wider selection of options to the market. Our initial emphasis will be re-introducing the line as Dtex by Regal Fabrics and integrating this product into our customer-focused business approach. Going forward, we are equally excited about the opportunities to build on our newly acquired capabilities to create new and novel fabrics in the future".
