

Spectra Home Expands Christina @ HOME Collection to Include More Upholstery and Occasional Accents

Meet Christina of HGTV fame in the Spectra Home High Point Showroom on June 5 and 6

High Point, NC, June 5, 2021 – Christina, HGTV home design expert and star of HGTV's Flip or Flop and Christina on the Coast as well as Discovery+ Christina: Stronger by Design, knows what homeowners are looking for in home furnishings. She shared that knowledge with Spectra Home to create the Christina @ HOME collection, an easy-living lifestyle collection of modern upholstery and occasional accents designed for today's busy families. See the entire collection in the Spectra Home High Point Market showroom, 200 N. Hamilton #213, June 5-9. Christina will be in the showroom on Saturday, June 5, 10 am-5 pm and Sunday, June 6, 10 am-1 pm to show her new introductions to retailers and designers and will be available for personal photos and autographs.

"Working with Spectra Home on this collection has been like a dream come true," admitted Christina. "My new collection is just what consumers are looking for - upholstery that's fashionable, comfortable, and easy to take care of. I also love the flexibility and functionality of the new accent tables like the Bunching Storage Cocktail Table and the C-table with the flip open top. My viewers will start seeing some of my collection on my shows this summer. I can't wait to also use the new pieces for my upcoming remodeling projects."

"We are incredibly happy with the strong retail response that we have had to the 35-piece inaugural Christina @ HOME collection introduced in October," stated Jim Telleys, Spectra Home's senior vice president. "To the original introduction, we added 16 more pieces of leather and performance fabric upholstery along with cocktail and end tables. The new pieces were very well received at Premarket in April, so we are looking forward to their continued success."
