COMPANY INFORMATION

Maria Yee established her namesake company in 1988 in Scotts Valley, California. A pioneer in sustainable furniture design, her design philosophy focuses on wellness, innovative material, and meticulous craftsmanship. Utilizing a modernized joinery system from advanced Chinese techniques, Maria Yee's bench-made furniture requires no nails or screws.

Acclaimed for California contemporary designs as well as advocating environmental and social responsibilities, Maria Yee believes in holistic design, and the idea that every step in the production process, material, craft, and environment matters.

The Maria Yee Design Studio is excited to introduce a new brand called omosa house, which is built on the belief that the best products are the ones that will age well and stand the test of time. Inspired by the casual and modern California lifestyle, our passion and purpose is to marry the beauty of sustainable, natural hardwoods with functionality, modern clean lines, and impeccable details.
