RFA Decor Introducing New Art and Artist at Fall High Point Market

BOCA RATON, Fla.—RFA Decor, a Rosenbaum Art Company, will be introducing more than 110 new works of art in its Fall 2024 High Point Market Collection, including hand-embellished giclée prints, original paintings and sculptures.

Among the introductions is a hand-embellished giclée based on an original acrylic painting by new RFA Decor artist Kate Baldock. Other highlights of the Fall Collection include new abstract and coastal art by artist Lawrence Behunek, new abstract art by artists Lara Brooke and Richard Kattman, new coastal art by artist Relja Penezic, new figurative art by artist Cindy Press, new abstract and floral art by artist Robert Robinson, a new abstract series by artist Evan Taylor, and new abstracts from RFA Decor's MOD Collection of moderately priced art.

The Fall 2024 Collection can be seen in RFA Decor's High Point showroom (H223, Hamilton Wing, International Home Furnishings Center, 210 E. Commerce, High Point, N.C.).

RFA Decor, a Rosenbaum Art Company, is a major wholesaler of original art, hand-embellished giclées, mirrors and decorative accessories for residential, corporate, contract, decorative and furniture markets. The company's offerings can be seen each Fall and Spring during the High Point Market, year-round by appointment in its High Point showroom, year-round at its showroom/gallery in Boca Raton, Fla., and online at rfadecor.com. All of RFA Decor's artwork is made in the U.S.A.
