Tamara Day Debuts Exclusive Lighting Collection with Quorum International at High Point Market

KANSAS CITY, KS – [April 7, 2025] – Celebrity designer and home renovation expert Tamara Day, known for her signature “laid-back luxe” aesthetic, is showcasing her effortlessly elevated style in her lighting line with Quorum International. Debuting at High Point Market, this stunning line is designed to make every space feel like home—stylish, functional, and full of character.

Tamara Day, who hosts Magnolia Network’s Bargain Mansions, has built her reputation on creating beautiful, livable spaces that balance elegance and comfort. This collaboration with Quorum International reflects that same philosophy, with each piece crafted to enhance the heart of the home. From modern Americana to timeless traditional, the Tamara Day for Quorum collection features chandeliers, pendants, sconces, picture lights and vanities that embody her signature warm, inviting aesthetic.

“Lighting is the jewelry of the home, and I wanted to create a collection that makes a statement while still feeling effortless,” said Tamara Day. “With Quorum’s incredible craftsmanship and attention to detail, we’ve designed pieces that bring light, warmth, and personality to every room.”

The collection features a variety of textures, finishes, and silhouettes, ensuring there’s something for every design style. Whether it’s a striking statement chandelier for a grand entryway or a set of beautifully layered sconces for an intimate glow, these fixtures transform any space with a perfect balance of sophistication and approachability.

Visitors to High Point Market can experience the full collection firsthand at the Suites at Market Square, showrooms M-1000A-B. Tamara Day—whose hit show Bargain Mansions is also airing in its sixth season on HGTV and will soon stream on MAX—will make appearances at High Point to share her inspiration and insights behind the designs.
