John-Richard Highlights Carol Benson-Cobb's New Inspirations at Spring 2025 High Point Market

HIGH POINT, NC, [April 2025] – John-Richard proudly continues its celebrated collaboration with renowned abstract artist Carol Benson-Cobb, whose refined textures and soft palettes have become signature elements across the brand's fine art and select furniture pieces.

This season, Benson-Cobb introduces a new creative direction influenced by her recent exploration into pottery. The tactile experience of working with clay brings ceramic-like textures—such as raked finishes—to cabinet doors and other surfaces.

This shift brings a sculptural, handcrafted dimension to her aesthetic and aligns with John-Richard's commitment to artistic evolution. Her evolving techniques deepen the brand's enduring values of artistry and craftsmanship, reinforcing its dedication to fresh, one-of-a-kind design perspectives.

The Province Collection is an innovative collaboration with renowned abstract artist Carol Benson-Cobb. Three chests and two armoires draw inspiration from traditional pottery techniques, featuring Terracotta textures that convey the dimensional beauty of hand-raked clay. These warm, organic motifs are elegantly contrasted by architectural fluting and crisp Palazzo finish, blending modern artistry with classic style. Gleaming accents of English Brass create a striking interplay between the grounded tones, contributing an opulent finishing touch. Celebrating bold creativity and masterful craftsmanship, each piece in the collection offers a truly extraordinary statement for any space.
