DELOS CHAIR

The Delos Chair is a refined take on the classic Klismos chair, blending historical inspiration with contemporary craftsmanship. Its elegantly curved legs and slightly reclined backrest provide both visual harmony and ergonomic comfort.

A defining feature of this chair is its leather-woven seat, which enhances texture and artisanal quality while ensuring durability. Subtle brass details add a touch of sophistication without overpowering the design, highlighting its meticulous construction.

AARHUS UPHOLSTERED ARM CHAIR (FABRIC)

This Alfonso Marina chair is a showcase of contemporary elegance, drawing inspiration from Danish design principles. The frame is crafted from high-quality wood, featuring exquisitely molded arms and intricately turned, tapered legs that highlight the precision of expert woodworking. The brass caps on the legs add a refined, decorative element, further elevating the aesthetic appeal of the fabric-upholstered chair.

ÉLYSÉE COCKTAIL TABLE

The Élysée Cocktail Table by Alfonso Marina is a sophisticated piece that seamlessly blends luxurious materials with refined craftsmanship. The marble top adds an element of timeless elegance, offering both durability and a striking visual appeal.

The structure is crafted from a combination of metal and wood, creating a balanced contrast between strength and warmth. The delicate fluted legs and gracefully curved stretcher give the table a classic yet airy feel, making it a versatile addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors.

TANG COCKTAIL TABLE

The Tang Cocktail Table draws inspiration from classical Chinese furniture, particularly the Tang (618–907 AD) and Ming dynasties. Its low profile and clean lines reflect traditional Chinese aesthetics, emphasizing simplicity and balance. Crafted from solid wood, it features precise joinery with horizontal stretchers and corner braces for stability. The subtle leg curvature and elegant proportions showcase the refined craftsmanship of traditional Chinese design. This table embodies the timeless principles of functionality and harmony, making it a versatile piece that blends effortlessly into both classic and modern interiors.

FIRENZE LAMP TABLE

The Firenze Lamp Table is an exquisite piece that showcases masterful marquetry and the beauty of natural wood veneers. This elegant table is veneered with various woods, including yew and guanacastle, creating a rich visual contrast and depth in its geometric patterns.

Its graceful, tapered legs and curved apron reflect classic European influences, making it a refined addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors. The combination of luxurious woods and meticulous craftsmanship gives the Firenze Lamp Table a timeless appeal, blending artistry with functionality.

AMALFI NEST TABLES

The Amalfi Nest Tables is an elegant trio of tables that seamlessly blend functionality with intricate craftsmanship. Each table features a marquetry-detailed top, showcasing meticulous wood inlay work that adds depth and refinement to the design.

The slender, tapered legs enhance the tables' light and airy aesthetic, making them versatile pieces that can be used together or separately. Their stacking capability allows for easy storage while maintaining a sophisticated and modern appeal.

With a perfect balance of artistry and practicality, the Amalfi Nest Tables bring timeless elegance to any space, reflecting Alfonso Marina's dedication to high-quality craftsmanship and exquisite detailing.

ETRUSCA CONSOLE WITH GLASS

The Etrusca Console is a striking and modern piece featuring a glass top, offering a refined and lighter aesthetic. The base is made of metal, showcasing sculptural legs with stacked geometric details that add a sense of rhythm and balance to the design.

The sleek crossbars enhance the structure's stability while maintaining its airy, contemporary feel. This console is a bold yet sophisticated statement piece.

YORKSHIRE REFECTORY TABLE

The Yorkshire Refectory Table is a piece inspired by traditional English craftsmanship, featuring a robust structure with turned legs and a stretcher base that enhances its stability. The apron is adorned with intricate geometric inlay work, reminiscent of historical marquetry techniques, adding a distinctive decorative element.

This type of table draws influence from 17th-century English furniture, characterized by its sturdy construction and ornamental detailing. Originally used in grand dining halls and monasteries, the refectory table is known for its durability and timeless appeal, making it a striking addition to both classic and contemporary interiors.

TIVOLI DINING TABLE

The Tivoli Dining Table by Alfonso Marina is a stunning representation of how ancient techniques can be revitalized to fit contemporary aesthetics, particularly in the art of marquetry. This table brings the old-world charm of intricate wood inlay into the modern day with its breathtaking tabletop design, showcasing a radial pattern of ebony and maple that radiates from the center, capturing both attention and admiration.

The Tivoli Dining Table marries the spectacular detail of its marquetry top with a sleek, understated base. The base's contemporary shape and the use of dark, polished ebony provide a stark, stylish contrast to the light and detailed marquetry, creating a harmonious balance between tradition and modernity. This design not only highlights the mastery of ancient woodworking skills but also adapts them into a form that complements and enhances today's interior design trends.

Alfonso Marina's dedication to reviving and preserving marquetry is evident in the Tivoli Dining Table, making it not just a functional piece of furniture but a statement of cultural and artistic preservation. It serves as a bridge between the past and the present, offering a piece that is both a work of art and a centerpiece in any modern home.

BRUZ II DINING TABLE

The Bruz II Dining Table is a masterful expression of craftsmanship and design, merging bold architectural structure with refined details. Its defining feature is the sculptural pedestal base, composed of meticulously stacked layers of wood that create a rhythmic, stepped effect. This dynamic form provides both stability and visual intrigue, making it an elegant yet commanding presence in any dining space.

ALFONSO MARINA

The round tabletop, crafted with precision, highlights the natural beauty of fine wood veneers. Its seamless finish and harmonious proportions enhance the table's overall balance, ensuring it stands as both a functional and artistic centerpiece.

With a design that bridges traditional techniques and contemporary aesthetics, the Bruz II Dining Table embodies Alfonso Marina's commitment to excellence, offering a statement piece that elevates any interior with sophistication and character.
