MR. & MRS. HOWARD FOR SHERRILL FURNITURE BRINGS THOUGHTFUL DETAILS AND TIMELESS FORMS TO OCTOBER 2026 HIGH POINT MARKET

High Point, N.C., October 2026 – Mr. & Mrs. Howard for Sherrill Furniture will introduce a compelling assortment of new designs at the October 2026 High Point Market, blending architectural inspiration, refined craftsmanship, and everyday versatility.

New introductions from Mr. & Mrs. Howard include a refined, travertine console that combines natural stone with rhythmic architectural detailing and a quiet sense of symmetry. It's like a serious piece of furniture that nevertheless decided to have a little fun.

Also debuting is a gilt cocktail table featuring a slender, irregularly articulated frame giving the impression of a delicate bronze sculpture caught mid-stride. Topped with a clear glass surface, it balances an almost medieval sense of ornament with an airy, whimsical lightness.

From Nellie Jane for Mr. and Mrs. Howard, new introductions include a new game table that builds on the success of the Amy Game Table. Its refined, furniture-forward silhouette is complemented by thoughtful details specifically designed for entertaining and game play. A removable center section creates a functional inset designed to hold game pieces. The table is highly customizable with the option to select different finishes for the base and top, along with specialty options such as striping. Designed to be stylish in any room, this piece is so much more than just a game table.

Offered in rectangular and 48-inch round versions, the new round pedestal dining table brings architectural detail and a sense of craftsmanship to a classic silhouette. A substantial, sculptural pedestal base gives the table presence while the fretwork apron adds a decorative element inspired by classic latticework.

Bringing added versatility is a round side table designed as a true workhorse piece that designers can use again and again. Its graceful, sculptural base gives it just enough personality while the simple round top keeps the piece clean and easy to place. Perfect beside a sofa, between a pair of chairs or even next to a bed, it's intentionally scaled and styled to work in a wide range of interiors.

The new pieces will be on display at the Sherrill Furniture Brands showroom located at 315 Fred Alexander Place during October 2026 High Point Market.
