

Napa East is happy to announce its new owners, Mike & Sue Cosenza.

Builders of Industrial Farmhouse, Wine Barrel Themed & Country Rustic furniture, the new owners are excited to be a part of the amazing custom furniture community. After spending years in corporate America, the new owners decided to follow their passion and wadded into the custom furniture business. Bringing decades of business experience, all in ownerships roles, Mike & Sue bring the passion and knowledge to grow their new venture while ensuring that the quality of their products brings joy to every customer.

Their motto, Crafting Happiness, applies to everything the staff at Napa East does. Mike describes the Napa East approach as “Build with the client always in mind. Picture that moment in your mind when a client receives their order. At that moment, all we want is for them to smile. If we do that, then we have done our job well.”
